

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME OF THE 86th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN IN SASKATOON, 28 - 30 MAY 2007

In recognition of the University of Saskatchewan centennial, there will be two special events during the Canadian Historical Association conference in Saskatoon.

On Tuesday, May 29, at 3:30 p.m, just before the annual general meeting, there will be a brief ceremony to recognize the naming of Arts 241 as the Neatby-Timlin Theatre. Mabel Timlin was a prominent member of the Department of Political Economy, while Hilda Neatby was the first female president of the Canadian Historical Association and the first female head of a History Department in Canada.

The second ceremony, Wednesday, May 30 at 5:00 p.m. in 301 Murray Library, will recognize the contributions of economist and historian Adam Shortt to the university archives and special collections. A reception will follow.

Before the official start of the CHA conference, there will be a choice of three local tours on the afternoon of Sunday, May 27. All start at 2:30 p.m and will run for about two hours..

Wanuskewin Heritage Park features First Nations displays and a number of Plains Indian archeological features. The return bus fare (to and from campus) is $15. There will also be a modest admission charge.

The Western Development Museum has a replica, full-size streetscape (Boomtown 1910) and a new "Winning the Prairie Gamble" exhibit. The return bus fare (to and from campus) is $15. There is a modest admission charge.

Two members of the Saskatoon Heritage Society will be offering walking tours of early Saskatoon and the boom years when the city grew from a hamlet of 113 in 1901 to 12,000 ten years later. The tours will start downtown. The cost is $15.

These tours are offered on a cost-recovery basis and will run only if there is sufficient interest. Please send your cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser, Department of History, 9 Campus Drive, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SASK, S7N 5A5.

The University of Saskatchewan has the best collection of Collegiate Gothic Architecture on any university campus in Canada.

There will be free, guided tours of the university bowl and renovated College Building each day of the CHA conference over the lunch break. Please reserve your space by contacting Bill Waiser at bill.waiser@usask.ca

TWO NEW SPECIAL EVENTS AT THIS YEAR'S SASKATOON CHA

There will be a pre-conference reception at Boffins Club on Sunday, May 27 from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Several former CHA presidents will serve as co-hosts of the event. Tickets are $10 per person. Please confirm your attendance by sending your cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser, Department of History, 9 Campus Drive, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, S7N 5A5.

There will also be a beer-and-pizza night at Saskatoon's own Great Western Brewery on Wednesday, May 30 from 7:00 to 8:30. Seating in the hospitality room is limited. Please reserve your space by sending your $10 cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser.

Many of the papers are now available on-line in PDF format. To access them, click on the underlined title of paper in the preliminary program. You will then be prompted to provide a password: sask-07

Fur Trade and Métis DaysSessions sur le commerce des fourrures et les réalités métisses

May 27-28, 2007, Diefenbaker Canada Centre

Co-sponsored by CHA and CINSA

Une collaboration de la Société historique du Canada et de la
Canadian Indigenous and Native Studies Association

Organized by Brenda Macdougall, Carolyn Podruchny, and Nicole St-Onge

In keeping with the Congress sub-theme "Aboriginal Peoples," the Canadian Historical Association and the Canadian Indigenous/ Native Studies Association are co-sponsoring a special "Fur Trade and Métis Days" program in Saskatoon on May 27-28, 2007. All sessions will be held at the Diefenbaker Canada Centre on the University of Saskatchewan campus.

Dans le contexte du sous-thème « Les peuples autochtones » du Congrès des sciences humaines, l'Association historique du Canada et l'Association des études autochtones organisent conjointement un programme de deux jours sur « La traite des fourrures et les communautés métisses. » Une série de sessions spéciales seront présentées les 27 et 28 mai 2007 au « Diefenbaker Canada Centre » du campus de l'université de la Saskatchewan.

2007 CHA Annual Meeting - Saskatoon (University of Saskatchewan)

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME OF THE 86th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN IN SASKATOON, 28 - 30 MAY 2007

In recognition of the University of Saskatchewan centennial, there will be two special events during the Canadian Historical Association conference in Saskatoon. On Tuesday, May 29, at 3:30 p.m., just before the annual general meeting, there will be a brief ceremony to recognize the naming of Arts 241 as the Neatby-Timlin. Mabel Timlin was a prominent member of the Department of Political Economy, while Hilda Neatby was the first female president of the Canadian Historical Association and the first female head of a History Department in Canada. The second ceremony, Wednesday, May 30 at 5:00 p.m. in 301 Murray Library, will recognize the contributions of economist and historian Adam Shortt to the university archives and special collections. A reception will follow.

Before the official start of the CHA conference, there will be a choice of three local tours on the afternoon of Sunday, May 27. All start at 2:30 p.m. and will run for two hours. Wanuskewin Heritage Park features First Nations displays and a number of Plains Indian archeological features. The return bus fare (to and from campus) is $15. There will also be a modest admission charge. The Western Development Museum has a replica, full-size streetscape (Boomtown 1910) and a new "Winning Prairie Gamble" exhibit. The return bus fare (to and from campus) is $15. There is a modest admission charge. Two members of the Saskatoon Heritage Society are offering walking tours of early Saskatoon and the boom years when the city grew from a hamlet of 113 in 1901 to 12,000 ten years later. The tours will start at 2:30 p.m. The cost is $15. These tours are offered on a cost-recovery basis and will run only if there is sufficient interest. Please send your cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser, Department of History, 9 Campus Drive, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SASK, S7N 5A5. The University of Saskatchewan has the best collection of Collegiate Gothic Architecture on any university campus in Canada. There will be free, guided tours of the university bowl and renovated College Building each day of the CHA conference over the lunch break. Please reserve your space by contacting Bill Waiser at bill.waiser@usask.ca

TWO NEW SPECIAL EVENTS AT THIS YEAR'S SASKATOON CHA There will be a pre-conference reception at Boffins Club on Sunday, May 27 from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Several former CHA presidents will serve as co-hosts of the event. Tickets are $10 per person. Please confirm your attendance by sending your cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser, Department of History, 9 Campus Drive, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, S7N 5A5. There will also be a beer-and-pizza reception at Saskatoon's own Great Western Brewery on Wednesday, May 30 from 7:00 to 8:30. Seating in the hospitality room is limited. Please reserve your space by sending a $10 cheque (payable to the CHA) to Bill Waiser.
