

PROGRAMME OF THE 84th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO, LONDON, ONTARIO
30 - 31 MAY AND 1ST JUNE 2005

PROGRAMME FINAL DE LA 84^e RÉUNION ANNUELLE DE LA SOCIÉTÉ HISTORIQUE DU CANADA UNIVERSITÉ WESTERN
ONTARIO, LONDON, ONTARIO LES 30, 31 MAI ET 1^{er} JUIN 2005

La réunion annuelle de la Société historique du Canada fait partie du Congrès des sciences humaines, qui s'occupe de l'inscription à la fois au Congrès et à la réunion annuelle. Pour obtenir de l'information sur l'inscription, sur l'hébergement ou sur tout autre sujet, vous pouvez consulter la page d'accueil du Congrès ou communiquer par courriel à l'adresse congress@fedcan.ca, ou encore composer le (613) 238-6112, poste 312. Le comptoir d'inscription sera situé dans le University Community Centre (UCC).

Le grand thème de la réunion annuelle de 2005 est « Paradoxes de la citoyenneté : environnement, exclusion, équité ». Parce que le mot « citoyenneté » est porteur de multiples sens (géographique, culturel, politique, idéologique et personnel), il devrait susciter des débats éclectiques sur l'histoire. Pour toute question relative au programme, veuillez vous adresser à Roger Hall à hallmartin@sympatico.ca.

Veillez noter : les exemplaires des communications de la S.H.C. sont disponibles à la pièce SSC 5406; les heures d'ouverture sont de 8 h à 17 h, les 30 et 31 mai ainsi que le 1er juin.

Film : Life After Île Ste-Croix

Projection du film : Life After Île Ste-Croix (en anglais seulement)

Presented by / Présenté par : Ronald Rudin, Concordia University and / et Leo Aristimuáó, Rutgers University
During the summer of 2004, Acadians, members of the Passamaquoddy First Nation, and English-speaking residents of New Brunswick and Maine, joined together to mark the 400th anniversary of the first effort by the French to create a permanent settlement in North America. Each group had its own reasons for remembering what had happened on Île Ste-Croix during the winter of 1604-05. Life after Île Ste-Croix tells the story of what they hoped to gain from participating in a commemorative event, and how they found the means of working together, in spite of their differences.

Au cours de l'été 2004, des Acadiens, des membres des Premières nations de la tribu des Passamaquoddy et des résidents anglophones du Nouveau-Brunswick et de l'État du Maine se sont réunis pour célébrer le 400^e anniversaire de la première tentative, par la France, d'établir une colonie permanente en Amérique du Nord. Chaque groupe avait ses propres raisons de se souvenir de ce qui s'était passé sur l'île Ste-Croix pendant l'hiver de 1604-1605. Life after Île Ste-Croix raconte ce que tous espéraient retirer de leur participation à cet événement commémoratif, et comment ils ont réussi à travailler ensemble malgré leurs différences.

51. Film : Letters from Karelia
Projection du film : Letters from Karelia (en anglais seulement)
Presented by / Présenté par : Varpu Lindström, York University

Varpu Lindstrom was the Historical Consultant and Chief Researcher on the 2004 National Film Board production (76m) directed by Kelly Saxberg. It relates the extraordinary and tragic story of the 2800 Finnish-Canadians recruited by Joseph Stalin to take part in a socialist utopia in Soviet Karelia, a region with historic connections to Finland. Instead of a workers' paradise most were to find their graves in the Stalinist purges of the 1930s. Varpu Lindstrom a été le consultant en histoire et le chercheur principal de ce film (76m) de l'Office national du film du Canada produit en 2004 et réalisé par Kelly Saxberg. Ce film raconte l'histoire à la fois extraordinaire et tragique des 2 800 Finno-Canadiens que Joseph Staline avait recrutés pour participer à la construction d'un socialisme utopique en Carélie soviétique, une région historiquement liée à la Finlande. Loin d'être le paradis des travailleurs promis, ce coin de pays fut plutôt le cimetière de ces idéalistes, que les purges staliniennes décimèrent pendant les années 1930.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First on the list to be thanked for contributing to CHA / S.H.C. 2005 are, of course, our numerous participants- from presenters, to commentators to chairs. The richness and sophistication of the Canadian historical community is reflected in their numbers and commitment to the discipline.

The members of our Programme Committee at Western are the ones that have done the heavy lifting and they have been tireless. Many thanks to Alan MacEachern, Shelley McKellar, Francine McKenzie, Bill Turkel and Robert Wardhaugh and also to our hardworking Student Assistant, Jane Whalen. Barry Ferguson of the University of Manitoba and Arthur Silver generously gave advice from their past experiences from which we profited immensely.

The Congress 2005 staff at Western, particularly Ruth Harland and Kate Vanderwielen, have amazed us all by their calmness and continuing flow of good, sound advice as they brought order to schedules and room allocation challenges. The Canadian Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences officers were equally helpful and we are particularly grateful to Marianne Fizez.

Western's Dean of Social Science, Brian Timney, has provided financial support for which we are most grateful. The History Department contributed time, money, and a sympathetic ear to our increasing needs as the conference approached. Ben Forster, our once and future Chair, started the ball rolling and it was ably pushed along by Acting Chair Margaret Kellow. We are in their debt. Valuable aid was also provided by Brenda Jeffs, Sandra Moore and particularly our Graduate Assistant, Chris Speed. Doug Leighton of Huron University College and John Lutman, Head of the J.J. Talman Regional Collection at the University of Western Ontario Archives, were most generous in agreeing to share their local knowledge with visitors.

Finally, we are very grateful indeed to the Hudson's Bay Company for sponsoring our President's Gala Reception. The Company accounts for no small part of Canada's history itself and its willingness to contribute to understanding our past is most appreciated.

For the committee,
Roger Hall
Programme Chair

REMERCIEMENTS

J'adresse tout naturellement mes premiers mots de remerciement aux nombreux participants qui ont tous contribué au succès de la réunion annuelle 2005 de la Société historique du Canada : conférenciers, animateurs, commentateurs et présidents de séances. Par leur présence et leur attachement à la profession, ils témoignent de la richesse et de l'expertise de la communauté historique canadienne.

En tête de ma liste de remerciement se trouvent aussi les personnes sans le dévouement desquelles la conférence n'aurait pas eu lieu. Je pense ici au personnel de la Société historique du Canada, à ses représentants élus et aux membres de son conseil, et en particulier à Joanne Mineault et à Marielle Campeau, du bureau d'Ottawa : tous étaient toujours là pour régler les mille et un problèmes inhérents à l'organisation d'une telle conférence. Ont aussi été d'un inestimable secours John Sainsbury, notre agent de liaison avec le Conseil, David Moorman, le trésorier de la S.H.C., Gerald Friesen, le président sortant, et Margaret Conrad, la nouvelle présidente.

Les membres du comité du programme à la University of Western Ontario ont travaillé dur dans les coulisses. Nous exprimons notre gratitude à Alan MacEachern, Shelley McKellar, Francine McKenzie, Bill Turkel, Robert Wardhaugh ainsi qu'à Jane Whalen, la très diligente étudiante-assistante. Nous avons pu tirer profit de l'expérience de Barry Ferguson, de la University of Manitoba, et de Arthur Silver, qui nous ont généreusement prodigué leurs conseils.

Les organisateurs du Congrès 2005 de la University of Western Ontario, particulièrement Ruth Harland et Kate Vanderwielen, nous ont émerveillés par le sang-froid et le jugement avisé dont ils ont constamment fait preuve dans l'élaboration des horaires et dans l'attribution des locaux. Les représentants de la Fédération canadienne des sciences humaines et sociales, notamment Marianne Fizet, se sont aussi montrés très obligeants.

Notre vive reconnaissance va aussi au doyen de la Faculté des sciences sociales de la University of Western Ontario, M. Brian Timney, qui nous a fourni un important appui financier. Le département d'histoire a contribué temps et argent, et s'est montré fort réceptif à nos demandes, qui se sont faites de plus en plus pressantes au fur et à mesure qu'approchait le jour d'ouverture de la conférence. Ben Forster, notre ancien et futur directeur, a entamé le processus qu'a habilement dirigé par la suite la directrice intérimaire, Margaret Kellow. Nous leur devons une fière chandelle. Ont aussi apporté une aide substantielle : Brenda Jeffs, Sandra Moore et tout particulièrement Chris Speed, notre étudiant diplômé-assistant. Doug Leighton, du Huron University College, et John Lutman, directeur de la J.J. Talman Regional Collection des archives de la University of Western Ontario, n'ont pas hésité à partager avec les visiteurs leurs connaissances de l'histoire régionale.

Enfin, nous sommes immensément redevables à la Compagnie de la Baie d'Hudson d'avoir commandité la réception du président de la S.H.C. Cette compagnie a marqué tout un pan de l'histoire du Canada et nous sommes profondément reconnaissants de sa contribution à la compréhension du passé

Au nom du comité; du programme,
Roger Hall
Président
