2027 CCMET Article Prize

The CCMET Article Prize acknowledges scholarly articles and book chapters, in English and French, judged to have made an original, significant, and meritorious contribution to the historical study of migration, ethnicity, or transnationalism. The winners receive a certificate of achievement and their names are published on the Canadian Historical Association website. The prize will be awarded annually by the Canadian Committee on Migration, Ethnicity, and Transnationalism of the Canadian Historical Association.

In years in which fewer than eight articles or book chapters are submitted, the CCMET may choose not to grant the award but to retain the nominated articles and chapters for adjudication the following year. Only articles and book chapters of a historical nature and that contribute to the study of migration, ethnicity, or transnationalism will count toward this threshold of eight submissions.

Eligibility requirements:

Works published by scholars with a primary affiliation in Canada during the 2026 calendar year on subjects relating to the history of migration, ethnicity, or transnationalism in any part of the world are eligible for consideration.

Both articles and chapters in edited volumes are eligible. Book chapters must be in peer-reviewed collections and be of article length.

Deadline for nominations: February 26, 2027.

Please submit a digital copy of the article or book chapter to the chair of the CCMET, Abril Liberatori, at abrill@yorku.ca. Self-nominations are welcome, and others can also nominate and submit on an author's behalf.
