Canadian Historical Association / Société historique du Canada

JEAN-MARIE FECTEAU PRIZE

The Canadian Historical Association is pleased to announce the 2027 Jean-Marie Fecteau Prize competition. The prize, in the amount of $250, will be awarded for the best article published by a PhD or MA-level student in a peer-reviewed journal (including peer-reviewed student journals) or edited collection, in French or in English.

The prize will be awarded at the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association in Winnipeg in June 2027.

Students are encouraged to send ONE complete submission to each jury member listed below on or before 31 January 2027. The article must present a historical perspective and contribute to scholarship in a subfield such as political history, social history, the history of art, economic history, cultural history, etc. Geographically, it can focus on Canada or another territory or collectivity.

Each complete submission must include the following:

1) an email with the subject heading "Jean-Marie Fecteau Prize Submission 2027";

2) full bibliographic information for the article in the body of the e-mail submission;

3) an electronic copy of the article published in a scholarly journal or an edited collection (published in 2026, or from 2025 if it has not been previously submitted);

4) a letter from the author's thesis supervisor, department, or graduate chair indicating the author was a registered student at the time of submission of the article.

Liza Piper (Chair)
epiper@ualberta.ca

Aino Pihlak
aino.pihlak@mail.utoronto.ca

Lily Hart
lilyhart@student.ubc.ca

Olivier Côté
olivier.cote@museedelhistoire.ca