Eugene A. Forsey Prize in Canadian Labour and Working-Class History: Undergraduate ($500)

The Canadian Committee on Labour History invites submissions for the Eugene A. Forsey Prize for undergraduate work on Canadian labour and working-class history.

The award is determined by committees established by the executive of the CCLH. In the spirit of the journal Labour / Le Travail itself, the committees interpret the definition of Canadian labour and working-class history broadly.

Undergraduate essays may be nominated by course instructors, but nominators are limited to one essay per competition. Additionally, authors may submit their own work. Essays not written at a university or college may be considered for the undergraduate awards.

The prize is supported by an anonymous donor. With the consent of the late Dr. Forsey's family, the CCLH chose to name the Prize in his honour because of his pioneering work in the field of Canadian labour history. Dr. Forsey was Research Director of the Canadian Congress of Labour and later the Canadian Labour Congress and also served on the committee that founded Labour / Le Travail.

The deadline for submissions is January 1, 2027.
